

2023 Richard D. Morse Memorial Award

The Adirondack Research Consortium is pleased to announce the 2023 Richard D. Morse Memorial Award Fund. Through the Fund, an annual $500 award is presented to a student who is studying at a college/university in the region that shares the passion Rick had for environmental policy, music, and/or outdoor activities. The funds are to be used to support research or educational activities.

To be eligible, students must be admitted in good standing, and enrolled in a program related to environmental science, policy, music, and/or outdoor activities. The Consortium will accept nominations from each invited college/university which states the student's qualifications and commitment to these areas of study and interest. To apply, please send a one-page letter of nomination from a faculty member, along with, a one-page letter from the student demonstrating award criteria and stating how the funds would be used to support academic pursuits. Nominations will be accepted until noon on Friday, April 28th, 2023.

The Award will be made directly to the student and presented at the Awards Luncheon during the 27th Annual Conference on the Adirondacks on May 19th, 2023 at the Conference Center in Lake Placid. This is a one-time award, with application for future awards welcome. Our expectation is to continue this annual award until the funds have been fully utilized.

Electronic applications are preferred. Nomination letters should be sent to:

Adirondack Research Consortium
Dan Fitts, Executive Director
adkresearchconsortium@gmail.com